

Many Residents' Welfare Associations are of the strong opinion that action against unauthorised constructions should be taken firmly.

(c) and (d) Yes, Sir in the case of old unauthorised constructions. in the case of fresh and ongoing unauthorised constructions in DDA flats, action for cancellation and demolition would continue to be taken by the DDA as per provisions of Acts and Rules.

Further action/views in the matter would be taken keeping in view the following:—

- (i) the suggestions that may be forwarded by the Residents' Welfare Associations;
- (ii) representations made by those who have suffered on account of illegal construction;
- (iii) opinion of professionals;
- (iv) structural safety and architectural integrity of the group housing flats and other such relevant factors.
